GOSPEL

26th Sunday (A)

There was a man who had two sons. He went to one of the sons and said, "Will you go and do a job for me today?" But the lad said, "No, I won't" Then later on he felt sorry and he went and did the job! The Father went to the other boy and said the same thing. This boy said, "Yes, certainly." But he didn't go at all! Then Jesus said, "Which boy did what his Father wanted?"
And everyone said the same, "It was the first boy, for he did the job in the end."

We would like to welcome Reception class to St. Joseph's. They have completed their first full time week, and what a busy week it's been. They have all settled in perfectly. Myself and the team are so amazed at how quickly the children have adjusted to life in Reception, it feels like they have been here for a year already! They have been very busy learning lots of new songs during our music lesson and singing assembly. Playing fun games during PE and dancing to tricky work outs. The children have really enjoyed playing outside using the sandpit and water table, and groups of children have been to the ICT suite to design and print their home using computer software. The children have also been working hard making beautiful paintings for our hall display which is about our inspirational families. We cannot wait to see what the rest of this year brings!

Mr Puszyk and the Reception team.
