GOSPEL

28th Sunday (A)

Jesus told this story, "The kingdom of heaven is like this: A King gave a great party for his son's wedding. Lots of people were invited. But when the time came, they would not come to the wedding. The King sent his servants. 'Tell them the party is ready.' But the invited guests weren't interested. The King was angry, he sent his servants into the town. 'Invite everyone you meet!' All sorts of people came to the wedding, good and bad alike and the party was full! When the King came in he noticed a man who hadn't prepared himself for a wedding, and he told his servants to tell the man to leave."

Multicultural Week

Beginning Monday 13th October 2014

We will be celebrating Multicultural week from Monday 13th October - Friday 17th October. Parents throughout the week are very welcome to come into school to share your knowledge through songs, stories, pictures about your place of birth. Please book a convenient time with the class teacher.

- Wednesday 15th October parents are invited to join us for lunch to celebrate Multicultural week. You will have to book through the office on Monday and pay £3.00.
- Thursday 16th October celebrate Harvest with us at St Joseph's Church 11am.
- Friday 17th October (no school uniform) children can wear traditional costume to school or red, white and blue. We will also be having a tasting day and would ask parents to send in a dish from their native country. Please list ingredients if possible because we have children with allergies.

Thank you for your support.
