GOSPEL

5th Sunday of Easter (B)

Jesus said to his friends, "Stay close to me! and everyone will know that you are my friends."

Congratulations

On Friday 24th April Paul Howard and his family Julie Howard, Hayley Openshaw and Emily Howard went to The Tower of London to receive Paul's Honour from the Queen. Paul received the British Empire Medal for 25 years' service to the Local Community. Paul looked after Minnie Bennett House, sheltered accommodation. He also helped run the G46 Scout Group. He has helped many local groups and schools with his prolific fundraising skills and has shown great kindness for helping people in need. Well done Paul!

Welcome back Year 3

On Wednesday 20th April Cindy, Yasmin and Shareef from Year 5 went to represent St Joseph's in a Maths Challenge at City Hall. They enjoyed the experience and found it an exciting challenge, competing against other schools solving Number and Shape problems, they were wonderful ambassadors for St Joseph's and maybe next year we will win!
