GOSPEL

Fourth Sunday of Lent (C)

One day Jesus told his friends this story. There was once a farmer who had two sons. The younger son came to his father and said: "Isn't it about time that you gave me my share of the farm?" So the father gave him his share of the money. A few days later, the boy packed his bags and left home. He went a long way away and he had a good time, but he wasted all his money, until at last he didn't even have enough to buy something to eat. Then he began to think "What a fool I am!" "Even the men who only work for my Father have as much as they want to eat." He went home and his father made him welcome. "I thought I had lost my boy," he said, "I thought he was dead. But now he is alive again, and I have found him once more."
