Gospel

Third Sunday of Advent Time B

Jesus went to Jerusalem to celebrate the Jewish Passover. He found the temple in Jerusalem full of people selling animals, and amongst them sat the money changers. He was very angry and overturned the tables of the money changers, scattering their coins everywhere. Angrily he chased the animals and the merchants out of the temple shouting at them, "Take all of these things away and stop making my father's home into a market place!" the temple priest tried to stop Jesus and asked, "What right do you have to acted like this?" Jesus answered, "Destroy this temple and I will raise it again in three days." "This temple took forty six years to build! How could you rebuild it in three days?" they exclaimed. The temple which Jesus spoke of his own body, and after his resurrection from the dead, his disciples would understand what Jesus had said that day.
