Gospel

11th Sunday of Time C

One of the Pharisees call Simon invited Jesus to dinner. A women who had done many things she was ashamed of, hears that Jesus would be there and came to find him. She knelt at his feet and began to cry, wiping his feet dry with hr long hair before covering them with kisses and perfumed ointment. Simon was annoyed that Jesus would allow such a person near him. But Jesus knew what Simon was thinking and asked him 'If one servant owed his master fifty pounds and another owed his master five thousand pounds, which one would love his master more if debts were cancelled?' 'The one who owed more,' Simon answered. Then Jesus said, 'Simon, you did not offer me water to wash with, a kiss as a greeting, or perfume to refresh me. This women has done all these things and more. Surely everything she has done wrong has been forgiven, for her to show such great love.' Then Jesus said to the women, 'Your faith has saved you! Go now, your sins have been forgiven.'

Year 5 girls visited St Ursula's

On Thursday 13th June the Year 5 girls went to St. Ursula's. At St Ursula's they participated in some of the classes such as DT, Foot Tech and Sewing. My favourite class was sewing where we made hand warmers. My hand warmers were pink and purple. I would go to St Ursula's.
