We've had a very successful first full week back at St Joseph's - the children have settled back into routine and expectations and are doing themselves and all of us proud!

As a way of us reconnecting with each other and reigniting the children's love of learning, the whole school have been involved in a project that centres around the beautiful book, 'Here We Are: Notes for Living on Planet Earth' by Oliver Jeffers. We hope to encourage a sense of community across the entire school, to reflect on the last few months, and help us all look forward to the future in a positive way. We'll be sharing some of the children's creative learning outcomes with you via this newsletter, class blogs and our Twitter account.

Just a reminder that all siblings can be dropped off at the earlier siblings' time and picked up at eldest siblings' time.

Please aim to be on time to drop off and collect your child to reduce the amount of people at the gate at one time.

Gospel 24th Sunday

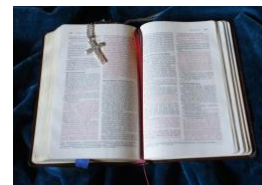

Peter came up to the Lord and asked, "How many times should I forgive someone who does something wrong to me? Is seven times enough?"

Jesus answered: "Not just seven times, but seventy-seven times! This story will show you what the kingdom of heaven is like: "One day a king decided to call in his officials and ask them to give an account of what they owed him. As he was doing this, one official was brought in who owed him fifty million silver coins. But he didn't have any money to pay what he owed. The king ordered him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all he owned, in order to pay the debt.

"The official got down on his knees and began begging, 'Have pity on me, and I will pay you every cent I owe!' The king felt sorry for him and let him go free. He even told the official that he did not have to pay back the money.

"As the official was leaving, he happened to meet another official, who owed him a hundred silver coins. So he grabbed the man by the throat. He started choking him and said, 'Pay me what you owe!'

Thank you to the parents and carers who have all helped to make our staggered start and finish times work so smoothly.

A gentle reminder for your own and each other's safety, when waiting for both drop off and collection times, adults and children are asked to wait at a social distance to each other and away from the main gates.

St Ursula's: Year 6

We would like to welcome you to St Ursula's. Unfortunately, due to the current situation with Covid-19, we are unable to run our Open Morning for Year 6 pupils in the usual way.

In order to keep our whole community safe, we are pleased to announce that we will be running two Virtual Open Events to introduce you to our wonderful school.

Monday 21st September, 4:30 – 6:00pm
Tuesday 29th September, 9:30 – 11:00am

In order to take part in either of these events you will need to visit our website and register. Please follow the link below. To register and view our Prospectus.

Please can you complete and return the flu nasal vaccination forms and return them to your teacher in class.

Returning Books

At the start of lockdown in March, we sent each child home with books to read. As we begin the new academic year, we ask that all books belonging to the school are returned.
